

TOWN AND COUNTY.

The peach trees blossom a promising crop.

The Harmony school is presided over by Miss Dullis Blevins.

The Woodway county fair will be held, commencing August 25th.

Miss Ella Bridges, will teach the spring term of the Mill Creek school.

Squire Wilkinson was elected mayor of Forest City on Tuesday last week.

The anti-temperance ticket was elected at Maitland, Tuesday of last week.

J. L. Dryden, of Benton township, is making valuable improvements on his farm.

The summer term of the Fairview school opened March 27th. Miss Josie Keras, is teacher.

Tyrra Martin, on the Howley farm, north of Forest City, has planted about twelve acres of corn already.

At the election for school directors, Tuesday of last week, C. O. Proud and Daniel Zachman were elected.

Jessie C. Cain, Thos. Lambert and Dan O'Connell have each planted one or more acres of onions this spring.

Dawson and Ziegler, of Mound City, have made many valuable improvements to their mill in that city.

Miss Anna Morgan, the Reclamationist will occupy the boards of the Corn and Meyer opera house, this (Friday) evening.

Freeman Libby, of Savannah, sold 150 acres of pasture land, in upper Iowa, last week, to Mr. John Hodgins, for $1,600.

The season for tidying up the yard has arrived—how thankful, we haven't any yard; we live nearer heaven than many of our subscribers.

Henry Stierett has commenced the erection of a store building, with hall accommodations on second floor, on the southwest corner of the public square.

Aunt Milla Morris, who was a resident of Holt county for about thirty years, died, at the residence of her son, in Brownville, Neb., on Friday of last week.

Mrs. Clarke, of this county, who was adjudged insane by an Oregon jury about three years ago, and sent to the St. Joseph lunatic asylum, died at that place on Friday of last week.

H. E. Peret & Co., have just completed putting 512 feet of lightning rod on our new Court House. The rod used is the Mumm patent cable, with nine points. The work is well done, and gives entire satisfaction.

Jaob Boek, who has a native lumber yard at Mound City, is one of the most enterprising citizens in that portion of Holt county. His yard is full of all kinds of native lumber, while his mill, which is located near Bigelow, is being run constantly to its fullest capacity.

The St. Joseph Herald deserves much credit for its enterprise exhibited during the week of the Jesse James excitement in that city. Its report was by far the most reliable and accurate any published within the borders of the Missouri Valley. Such enterprise will win every time.

A young man by the name of Barnes, who is visiting relatives here, went fishing on Friday last. Trying to shoot frogs for bait, with a small revolver, he accidentally shot himself in the thigh. The ball a small one, is lodged on the outer side and Dr. Goslin & Egenbaum, who were called, have decided to leave the ball as it is.

Jake W. Spencer, of the St. Joseph Evening News, has just published a neat book, giving an authentic and graphic account of the assassination of the notorious outlaw, Jesse W. James, which occurred in St. Joseph, April 3rd. Price twenty-five cents. Address J. W. Spencer, Evening News, St. Joseph, Missouri.

A St. Joseph special to the Globe-Democrat, says that the slayer of Jesse James "drew a murderous Colt's forty-one calibre revolver, and aimed at a man who has resided in the south part of the city since November, and gone under the name of Howard from the rear." What name did he go under from the other side?

C. C. Aiken, made a rush into Mound City the other day; hat and coat off, pants in the top of his boots, his hair fairly standing on end. "It's a baby" says he; "what's the sex, asked a by-stander; 'I do declare, I forgot to ask.' C. C. soon returned, and told the boys when the youngster was twenty-one he would vote the greenback ticket. Then the crowd shouted.

We occasionally find an enthusiastic individual who cannot be induced to believe that he is a fool. The late unfortunate who has some admirers who firmly believe that inasmuch as Jesse has been compelled to depend on ravenine, for a living, he will be eventually taken up like the good Elijah, in a chariot of fire, with ice cream and appointments.

H. T. Aiken, attorney at law, of this city, has purchased an interest in the general merchandise store of Milton Bros., at Forest City, and has gone to selling goods in earnest. He will not, however, entirely abandon his law practice. Mr. Aiken is one of our most energetic young men, "chuck full" of business, and he will prove a valuable addition to this already popular firm. We wish "Fable" success, and if he don't succeed it will not be his fault.

Herald for Anderson!

Jake Bucher is happy—a girl.

Will R. Harshbarger is clerking for Henry Stierett.

Mr. A. L. Crowwhite, is teaching the Kinsey school.

Miss Jennie Wright is teaching the Chambers school this spring.

Miss O. A. Wright is teaching the spring term of the Mill Creek school.

David Knifer is agent commissioner and Eliza VanBuren, city attorney.

Miss Bennett has been awarded the contract for building the Sterritt Opera house.

On last Monday, Mrs. Carl Waagle, of Holtville, gave birth to her tenth child—a boy.

C. C. Aiken, of Mound City, has been commissioned a notary public. A very good appointment.

A singing class has been organized at Woods school house. All are invited to attend Saturday night.

Miss Julia May, commenced her fourth successive term of school at the Star school house last Monday.

Henry Stierett is putting a handsome show window in his store building on the north side of the square.

Services will be held at the Presbyterian church, next Sabbath morning, and evening, by the pastor Rev. Mr. Williamson.

W. H. Richards left Wednesday for Booneville and Jefferson City, Missouri, in the interest of the county lunatic fund.

Proceeding at Triunph school house next Sabbath morning at eleven o'clock and at Oregon at 8 p. m., by the Rev. S. Carothers.

Our school board held a meeting last Saturday. C. O. Proud was elected Treasurer, W. B. Davis, Sec. and H. L. Allen, President.

On the grave stone erected to the memory of Jesse James, these words should be placed: "Jesse James, who killed the sleeping car guard."

N. O. Hopkins, seems to be the choice of the Adickson county Republicans and Democrats, for representative to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of E. M. Hurns.

A certain young pedagogue got considerably "off" last Saturday evening, at Forest City, after the Teachers' Institute adjourned. We refrain from publishing his name on account of shame for him.

J. M. Wilson, a well-to-do farmer of Benton township, had the bad luck to get his left hand almost entirely mangled off, last week, by his son-in-law accidentally striking it with a sledge hammer while driving posts.

Rev. M. M. Goode, St. Joseph, will deliver a lecture in the Christian church at Oregon, Thursday evening, April 20th. Subject: Church and State. Also Friday evening, April 21st, he will deliver a lecture to young men. All are invited. Admission free.

Clarence Moulter, the ten year old son of Henry Moulter, of this city, fell under the wheels of a loaded wagon, on last Monday. He was badly bruised and his left shoulder dislocated. Dr. Thatcher was called, and the little sufferer is doing as well as could be expected.

John Ham's appointment as postmaster at Maryville has been rejected by the senate. This action was brought about by Senator Cockrell, of this state, who claimed Ham's nomination was made at the instance of Chauncey L. Filley, who he says has opened out an office in Washington to deal in offices.

Governor Crittenden, when a candidate for Governor, stated in a speech in Oregon, that if he was elected, he would rid the State of the noted outlaw, Jesse James. He has kept his word, and the good people of the State are not particular as to how he accomplished the disposition of this notorious character. Jesse has climbed the golden stair and we are not particular whether he has his boots on at the time or not.

Jessie James would have cut off his right arm rather than decle a friend, and where in his career is he charged with such a cowardly act and was guilty of—Ez.

Jesse James killed his old comrade and friend, Miller, while Miller was sleeping at his side. Ford's act was so cowardly that the killing of John Sheeta, of the Gallatin Bank for the murder of conductor Westfall.

According to those who have made careful research and computation, Good Friday and Easter occurred this year, on the exact dates on which the events which they are anniversaries. They are the anniversary of the resurrection, regulated by the moon's phases; but the actual date on which Christ was crucified, is computed to have been Friday, April 14th, and His resurrection occurred on Sunday, April 15th. Therefore a great many years ago, Christ was crucified on Mount Calvary.

Dr. J. L. Minton, of Forest City, relieved by express from St. Louis, one day last week, the skeleton remains of a brand new subject lately dissected by his brother Ike, at a medical college in that city. When the box was opened a very strong odor of putrefaction met the nasal emanating sense, but the Doctor explained to the by-standers that after being boiled and scaped the bones would emit no such offensive odor. Dr. Minton expects, after polishing the bones, to wire them together and keep the skeleton on exhibition in his office.

ALL OVER THE COUNTY.

KIMSEY.

Nelson Miller, spent last Sunday at home.

J. C. Manton, has returned from Burlington, Iowa.

David Caldwell sent a horse of the Pinkays, the other day.

A Mr. Walker, has purchased and moved on the O'Connell farm.

Farmer have sown wheat and are now preparing to plant corn.

Three boys to play checkers as well as he did before he had the bumps.

Mrs. George Thomas, is slowly recovering from a protracted illness of fever.

Henry Dillingham, of Kansas, spent last week with friends in this vicinity.

Miss Belle Cottrell, of Oregon, will teach the summer term of school at Benton.

Wm. Carroll and wife, of Atchison county, are visiting friends and relatives in this county.

What has happened to "Hopper"? It seems there was nothing about him in the bottom items, last week.

David Caldwell, who was thrown from a mule a few weeks ago, and fractured several of his ribs, is about well.

At the school meeting held on the 4th, an eight months school was voted, with H. F. Shackelford and Thomas McKinney chosen as directors of the Board.

BENTON.

On last Sunday, there was preaching at Benton, by Elder Harshbarger. A Sunday school was organized. As the people were returning from religious services, two young men were discovered horse racing, in the road near the school house. We would tell these young men to be contented with any way that themselves before the Grand Jury.

X. Y. Z.

TO TEACHERS.

Notice is hereby given, that the Board of Directors of the Oregon school district will receive applications for the positions of Principal and five assistants, and one teacher for the school opened, up to noon, May 10th. Applications should be addressed to W. B. Davis, Secretary.

By order of the Board.

W. B. Davis, Sec.

FOREB.

Health generally good.

Fall wheat is looking fine.

Business generally dull just now.

A Sunday school was organized here Sunday.

There are several new buildings in process of erection here.

The new drug store of Dr. A. G. Young, will be nearly completed in another week.

Charles D. Morris will have the much desired early vegetables for the market soon.

N. F. Murray shipped three car loads of fruit and ornamental trees, from here last week.

Jury trial before Justice Dunn, Saturday, about a cow. As usual two men wanted the same cow. Costs of suit about double the price of the cow.

J. R. Wilson has 26 foot extension to his new store nearly done, which will give him a foot building.

The enterprise of THE COUNTY FARMER in getting out the supplement last week, is highly spoken of by our citizens.

Mrs. Hilliker, wife of our railroad agent, arrived home Saturday, from a week's visit to her sister at Fairfax. Hilliker, spirits went up to 120 in the shade.

The removal of an old dilapidated corn crib of large dimensions, which stands between Main street and the railroad, would add very much to the looks of our village.

Rev. D. R. Morris delivered a good sermon Sunday forenoon, from the story of Cain and Abel. "Am I my brother's keeper?" He will preach here once a month.

Scott & Shambaugh, have opened their new hardware store, with a stock equal to any in the county. All wish them success and we think it were a paying investment.

Miss Clara Wilkinson, of Forest City, has been engaged to teach our summer term of school which commenced last Monday. Glad to see Miss Clara. Hope some one will induce you to make Forest a permanent residence.

Mrs. Campbell, wife of our late school teacher, was very sick last week, but we learn that she is almost as well as usual, and will start with Mr. Campbell for Fargo, Dakota, in a couple of weeks, where Mr. C. will follow his vocation as teacher. They go hoping Mrs. C. will regain her health.

Little Daisy Smith, daughter of our enterprising blacksmith, met with a peculiar accident last week. Mrs. Smith left window sash standing in a tub of water for a moment, and Daisy looked over her shoulder in the glass. The sash fell on her head and cut a very bad gash in the top of her head, laying the skull bare the breadth of the thumb of the finger, and cutting an artery. Dr. Young was called in and dressed the wound.

MOUND CITY.

Charles Conner, will move to Mound City, soon.

John Caton, shipped nine car loads of stock this week.

The work on Dr. Gordon's business house is progressing finely.

Anna A. Morgan, will be at the opera house, on Friday, April 14th.

James Cason, made a flying trip to Forest City, last Saturday.

Mr. Leach, the general depot agent at Maitland, was in town Monday.

Samuel Blazer, was in town looking for a house to move into, Saturday.

J. W. Davis and Michael Deloit, of New Point, were on our streets Monday.

Miss Nettie Miller, who has been quite sick for some time, is now convalescent.

On Monday, John Caton sold his dwelling house to Henry Crander. Price, $600.

George Bennett and wife, were baptized at the Christian church last Sunday night.

L. R. Knowles, was in the city last Saturday, engaged in a law suit before Squire Wilkinson.

The supplies of the Cox County Fair on last week, shows commendable enterprise on the part of its publishers.

The letter from Oregon, entitled, "A letter from the eagle's nest," affected the gentry benevolent, considerably amused.

We understand that Dr. Lukens, of Oregon, has rented a room for a dental office, in Mr. Hohlitzel's building, over Welly Bro's store.

Attorney J. W. Stokes was in town last week, attending to a case he had before a Justice of the peace here. A change of venue was taken to Forest City.

Miss Lizzie Owens, has had the front taken out of her millinery store, and replaced with a large glass front. Miss Owens now has one of the handsomest stores in town.

Father Dean, will soon commence the erection of a large business house just south of where his store now is, to be used for the postoffice, in connection with his restaurant.

Miss Rose Biggers' new building is completed, and occupied, she by Miss Biggers as a family residence, and below by Mr. Earl's grocery store and Miss Biggers' millinery shop.

Rev. Isaac Hall, has moved with his family to Tarkio City. Mr. Hall goes there to take charge of the M. E. church at that place and at Westboro. Mr. Hall leaves many friends here, all of whom wish him health and happiness in his new field of labor.

Miss Mary Brockman, arrived here one day last week, from her parents, in Kansas. Her husband, Anthony Brockman, has been living in this county for some time, making his home with Joseph Warren, four miles north of here. When Mrs. B. arrived here, she staid over night at the Hatt house. While there, her quack notions caused M. Hatt to think she was insane, or bordering on insanity. She was taken to Mr. Warren's, and in a few days was perfectly sane, so much so her husband is preparing to send her to the asylum. Mr. B. has our sympathy.

THE BOTTOM.

Fishermen plenty at Pecky lake.

H. Minton is now realizing the benefits of his pasture.

A number of "new comers" have lately arrived in this section of the bottom.

T. J. Williamson, teacher of Idle-Wilde school, has taken a lay-off until the 15th.

The Walnut Grove school is now open for Sunday school, and we hope to have a good one in a few weeks.

A. W. VanCamp, is putting out an extensive orchard at his place. It is one of our most enterprising citizens.

CORNING.

Mrs. Napp is very sick.

Miss Eliza Everett is quite sick at Mass Prices.

Jim Sedwick's smiling face illuminated our streets Monday.

Jake Boulice is spending a few days with his many friends here.

The foot race between Noel and Smith is indefinitely postponed.

Frank Noel has come home for a short time to recover his health.

Peter Christen wears the honors of school director with becoming grace.

Uncle Wan. Huns is selling a some excellent links, and penmanship instructors.

A Sunday school will be organized at the M. E. church next Sunday evening at 4:00 o'clock.

W. S. Yalgrundy has returned from Lewis College, where he has been attending school for the past few months.

It is understood that Dr. Porter will soon locate in Corning, and occupy the hotel property in the upper end of the town.

An old lady named Huns, is spreading from bluff to bluff, throughout Atchison county, making the crossings difficult and dangerous.

Dr. Noel had a serious attack of rheumatism, affecting his foot. Dr. Jackson of Craig has been up several times to see him. He is improving.

Among other improvements in the past week, we notice a restaurant and a barber shop. The restaurant by M. F. Hill, and the barber shop by L. Howard. Corning having two first-class hotels, a restaurant besides boarding houses, and a barber shop, is well supplied for the needs of the community.

In the city election the successful men were, Mr. Earl John Smith, A. H. Hogrefe, I. Hogrefe and L. W. Kirkland. With John Smith as marshal, and these substantial men to support him, we hope an end will come to the scandalous proceedings so often witnessed on our streets.

CHAIO.

Big Tarkio is on a boom. Out of her banks.

Dr. Luther is now absent from home attending Freshbury.

Frank Allen's residence is now receiving its finishing touches.

Mrs. George Smith is now receiving medical treatment in St. Joseph.

The late deceased holder, died on Saturday last on the bottom near town.

Judge Simpson made his spring delivery of fruit trees on Tuesday last at this place.

Elmer Swore owns a bicycle which threw him on Saturday last fracturing his right arm. The cause was a defective wheel.

Hunter's brick house has been made and work will be begun at once.

The prospectus of the Craig Meteor is out. The first issue of the paper is to follow on the 15th of May.

Edwards of Iowa, an eminent minister of the Christian church, preached for his people at this place on Sunday last, morning and evening.

As the result of our city election, Chas. Thayer was elected mayor, Jasper O'Dell, marshal, Aldermen: 1st, Ward, Fred Myers and Cave Hunt, 2nd, Ward, W. B. Wilson and C. M. Gulliams.

MAITLAND.

Thanks for your extra of last week.

A good shower, Saturday laid the dust, and settled everything.

Miss Mattie Glenn, of Oregon, is visiting at her brother's, Mr. Edward Glenn.

The temperance people feel somewhat chagrined at the result of the election.

Miss Bell Storm, who has been visiting friends here, left on Monday last for her home in Kansas.

Mr. George Rapp, formerly of Maitland, is making his friends a call. He is now representing a S. & S. firm.

Mr. Kiljah Powell, of Whig Valley is carrying a crutch, having had a foot badly crushed by a fractious horse.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The Nodaway school, and R. C. Hunter, and others in the cut-off are anxiously awaiting to see the current change.

We hear some of the farmers talking of planting corn this week. Plenty of time yet, the early birds sometimes get left, you know.

Mr. J. E. Phillips, was made happy a few days since by the arrival of another regular boarder. "It is a girl."

Mr. Looker has taken charge of his hotel, recently vacated by Mr. Boher, with the intention of running a first class house.

The